Media Release

Des Moines Elite Youth Football- Des Moines Venom

I give permission to use my child's images and video footage from games and practice for promotional use by the team on the various social media and web platforms

I, the parent/guardian of the above-named player for the Des Moines Elite Youth Football Club Des Moines Venom team, hereby give my approval to participate in any and all Club activities, including transportation to and from the activities. I know that participation in football may result in serious injuries, and protective equipment does not prevent all injuries to players, and do hereby waive, release, absolve, indemnify, and agree to hold harmless Des Moines Elite Youth Club, the organizers, sponsors, board members, participants and persons transporting my child whether result of negligence or for any other cause. I understand that I am responsible for all equipment issued to my child and will be billed for any equipment lost, stolen, or not returned at the end of the season or the end of my child's time with the team. I also understand there are no refunds after the first week of the season. My signature below indicates my agreement to all terms outlined as well as the parents code of conduct attached to this registration.

DES MOINES ELITE YOUTH FOOTBALL CLUB - PARENTS CODE OF CONDUCT

As a parent, you play a special role in contributing to the needs and development of your child. Through your encouragement and good example, you can help assure that all the boys and girls learn good sportsmanship and self-discipline. In Des Moines Elite Youth Football Club, young people learn to work together, to sacrifice for the good of the team, to enjoy winning and deal appropriately with defeat – all while becoming physically fit and healthy. Best of all, they have fun.

Support your child - Supporting your child by giving encouragement and showing interest in their team is very important. Help your child work toward skill improvement and good sportsmanship in every game. Teach your child that hard work and an honest effort are often more important than victory – that way your child will always be a winner despite the outcome of the game!

Always be positive - Parents serve as role models for their children. Become aware of this and work to be a positive role model. Applaud good plays by your child's team as well as good plays by the opposing team. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from youth sports activities.

Remember that your child wants to have fun - Remember that your child is the one playing football, not you. It's very important to let children establish their own goals – to play the game for themselves. Take care not to impose your own standards and goals on them. Don't put too heavy a burden on your child to win games. Children play for the fun of playing.

Reinforce Positive behavior - Positive reinforcement is the best way to help your child achieve their goals and their natural fear of failure. Nobody likes to make mistakes. If your child does make one, remember it's all part of learning, so encourage your child's efforts and point out the good things your child accomplished.

Don't be a sideline coach or referee - Coaches and referees are usually parents just like you. They volunteer time to help make your child's youth football experiences a positive one. They need your support too. That means refraining from coaching or umpiring from the sidelines.

Practices and game – I understand that the coaches volunteer their time to lead practices and games. Parents who choose to drop their child(ren) off at practices, games and/or other league events should be aware of the ending time of such events. Please have transportation set up prior to dropping your child off.

Parents Pledge

I shall set an example for sportsmanship for my child to follow. I shall emphasize team play to my child. I shall show by example respect for referees, opposing teams and other fans. I shall not be a grandstand manager. I shall remember that not everyone can play at one time. I shall not be critical unless I'm willing to work to correct the problem. I shall attend my child's games because, it is important to them, they are not young forever. I shall be supportive when my child is successful or when struggling for success. I shall be positive and supportive whether the team wins or loses. I shall remember that all board members, coaches, and league officers are volunteers. I shall volunteer whenever possible. I shall remember that the game is for the kids.
